

This letter is an answer from Bill when I was not sure that I had all of The Yarwood Notes he had sent.

26 March 1982

Dear Glenn,

Thank you for your letter and for sending the church bulletin for your father's service.

I do not know whether or not I ever met him - of course, my father, Bob Yarwood, knew him. I can only recall being in the area of Decorah twice - once on a vacation trip before my father died (probably about 1932); and when I went there with Uncle Guy's family for Aunt Carrie's funeral. Both times there were so many new (to me) relatives that I really don't remember any of them! Perhaps you also know how that is.

I do not know just which letters you have missed, so I will send a copy of each of those I have sent out.

If you happen to run across any information about Yarwood's, I'd like to get it so as to include in my next following Christmas letter.

On page 7 of last year's letter is a copy of your Father's obituary that cousin
Dorothy Emmons sent to me.

Thanks again for writing - I hope to hear from you again.

Your cousin,
Bill
